She is currently a registered nurse and graduate of Wesley Theological Seminary where she obtained a Master's of Divinity as an Urban Fellow, Oxnam Scholar, and member of the Association of Black Seminarians. Daily she strives to combine both nursing and ministry into one entity, in order to create an equilibrium of the mind, body, and spirit through holistic wellness. While on Howard's Campus, she was the President of Chapel Assistants, an Ambassador, Miss College of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences, and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated, Alpha Chapter.

Through various desires to reach many communities outside the four walls of the church, she founded a scholarship in her hometown for seniors called "SHINE", hosted many programs and conferences on Holistic Awareness, is the owner of RISE Enterprises LLC, a certified Life Coach and author of a Daily Devotional Book entitled, "Rise and Shine: 30 Daily Devotionals for Self-Empowerment in Christ". She has also extended her ministry beyond the borders of the United States while journeying to Capetown, South Africa, and El Salvador on mission trips to help those abroad. Christian considers her faith and family as her foundation and is so very honored to be the only girl of six boys.

She currently serves as the Youth Minister of Mount Moriah Baptist Church where she was also licensed to preach the Gospel. Her motto is "the greatest gift of life is the gift of giving" and she challenges others daily to pay it forward with a smile, a warm heart, and a purpose-driven life. She is a fearless motivator, teacher, author, entrepreneur, holistic wellness coach, and preacher of the Gospel and has been called to transform the lives of all whom she comes in contact with through the power of God.
